

Conditions of participation in our contest

The participation in the prize draw are open to any person, resident in Switzerland or abroad, with the exception of staff at the OTV and their children. In case the winner is minor, the prize would be awarded to its legal representant. It is free of charge and is not linked to any obligation to make a purchase. The participation in the prize draw is linked to the coloring of maps of the Tourist Board of the canton of Vaud. This contest will be open from Friday, April 10th, 2020 until May 15th 2020, closing date.

OTV shall treat the personal data of participants in strictest secrecy as per the data protection regulations. By their participation in the contest, participants expressly agree to their personal data being used by OTV for marketing purposes to promote our offers during and beyond the term of the contest. Each participant will be able to ask the OTV for access to their personal details or exercise their right to correction or deletion at any time. Various regulations regarding confidentiality apply to all the data circulated or published in order to prevent the publication or disclosure of any information regarded as confidential. Personal data will be used solely for the prize draw to determine the winner. The transmission of personal data to a third party is ruled out. The winner will be notified by social media, email or mail depending on the form of participation. If OTV is not able to contact the winners within a period of fourteen days as of the date of the prize draw, the winners will be considered to have refused their win and OTV will dispose of the prize as it sees fit. The winner will be drawn at random.

Prizes include the following:

2 two-night stays in a 4-star hotel for 2 adults and 2 children, breakfast included.

Validity: August 31, 2021

The awarded prizes cannot be exchanged or refunded in cash nor be the subject of any dispute. No correspondence will be entered into regarding the organization of the prize draw and any recourse to legal proceedings is ruled out. Within the legal limits, the OTV declines all responsibility associated with the prize draw and its organization. It cannot be held liable in the event of connection problems to the website, for which participants bear full responsibility.
