A diagram of a caravan site layout. The spots are arranged in a grid-like pattern, with rows and columns of numbered plots. The plots are numbered from 1 to 283. The numbers are arranged in a way that suggests a grid, but some plots are missing or have different numbers. The plots are color-coded: some are red, some are green, and some are white. The red plots are mostly in the upper right and lower right areas, while the green plots are mostly in the lower left and lower middle areas. The white plots are scattered throughout.
