WELCOME TO LAUSANNE

The Olympic Capital of Lausanne has become the latest hot spot for trade shows, conferences, meetings and business tourism.

Lausanne, which is conveniently nestled between Lake Geneva and the Alps, is easily accessible. There are direct trains from many major European cities, as well as an international airport 45 minutes away.

Your guests will be immersed in a unique environment in which sport, culture, technology, medical research and innovation converge.

Lausanne is known for its modern services, its expertise and its breathtaking nature. There is no better place to inspire, entertain and captivate your attendees.

TEN REASONS TO COME TO LAUSANNE

WHY LAUSANNE IS JUST WHAT YOU'RE LOOKING FOR

SWISS QUALITY IN THE HEART OF EUROPE

The city is renowned for its political stability, economic momentum, multiculturalism, reliability, efficiency and hospitality.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS

Lausanne joined the Global Destination Sustainability Index (GDS Index), a collaborative business initiative that aims to develop and promote sustainable development strategies for business destinations and the global events industry.

AN OUTWARD-LOOKING OLYMPIC CAPITAL

Lausanne is home to the International Olympic Committee (IOC), multinational corporations and over 50 international associations.

IT IS LOCATED IN THE HEART OF THE SWISS HEALTH VALLEY

The Lake Geneva area is synonymous with scientific and entrepreneurial action in the healthcare industry, and is home to nearly 1,000 businesses, start-ups, and research and educational facilities which are influential to the pharma, biotech and medtech sectors.

A HUB FOR EDUCATION, RESEARCH AND INNOVATION

Over 200 schools and universities, some of which are highly acclaimed (including EPFL, UNIL, IMD and EHL), pool diverse skill sets such as life sciences, micro- and nanotechnologies, IT and technologies related to communication, energy, the environment and food.

A DIVERSE PALETTE OF ACTIVITIES AND EXCURSIONS

Lausanne is located near famed natural landscapes and traditional mountain areas offering a variety of attractions to visit, including watches, chocolate, cheese and wine.

A RICH HERITAGE

Lausanne's town centre dates back to the Middle Ages. The area is brimming with one-of-a-kind cultural sites and is surrounded by nature, boasting panoramic views of Lake Geneva and the Alps.

FREE, HIGH-QUALITY TRANSPORTATION

Lausanne's excellent infrastructure enables you to hop quickly from place to place, making it easy to get around the city, the country and all over Europe. Guests staying at hotels benefit from free public transportation throughout the city.

A COSMOPOLITAN CITY ON A HUMAN SCALE

Lausanne has become a business destination thanks to its quality infrastructures. Compact and international, the city welcomes major events every year.

THE LOWEST VAT IN EUROPE

VAT at only 7.7%.

LAUSANNE IN A NUTSHELL

A CENTRAL MEETING POINT IN EUROPE

Located only 45 minutes by car or train from the international airport in Geneva (Cointrin), Lausanne is centrally accessible via all of the main methods of transportation in Switzerland and Europe. Several trains leave for Lausanne every hour from all major Swiss cities, and even more remote areas benefit from easy connections. If you're headed to Paris or Milan, for example, there are three to eight high-speed trains a day to choose from, arriving in under four hours.

A PLAYGROUND OF NATURAL WONDERS

Lausanne is nestled against a breathtaking backdrop which includes Lake Geneva – the biggest lake in Western Europe – and the majestic beauty of the Alps. It also features the Lavaux wine region, a UNESCO world heritage site with grapevines that cascade down the hills to the very edge of the lake. And it's only ten minutes from the city.

THE HOME OF INTERNATIONAL SPORT

The history of the city and that of the International Olympic Committee (IOC) have been inextricably linked ever since the latter established its headquarters there in 1915. In 1993, the city opened the Olympic Museum, casting a unique spotlight on the sporting world. The following year, Lausanne was selected to be the Olympic Capital – a prestigious and unique label. Last but not least, in 2015, the IOC celebrated its 100th anniversary on the banks of Lake Geneva. The Committee's dedication and the support of national, regional and local authorities have made it possible to welcome the offices of over 50 international sporting federations and organisations in the greater Lausanne area. Lausanne is currently considered to be the world capital of sport administration.

UNPARALLELED QUALITY OF LIFE

Lausanne is committed to sustainable development since the 90s. Local public services were therefore required to respect the environment and include nature in the city's development. In 1996, the municipality of Lausanne received the City of Energy award and was then ranked in the top tier amongst 60 competing municipalities in 2001. In 2004, Lausanne's energy policy earned it the very first European Energy Award Gold certification (confirmed in 2009). A similar approach was adopted by many private companies in order to reinforce Lausanne's reputation as a city that anticipates future challenges.

MULTICULTURALISM MEETS HUMAN SCALE

The Lausanne metropolitan area is home to 409,000 inhabitants (80,000 of whom are foreign residents). For a city of its size, it provides an impressive foothold for businesses, the arts, sport and education. Located in the French-speaking part of Switzerland, Lausanne is the country's fourth largest urban hub.

LAUSANNE CONVENTION BUREAU SERVICES

Lausanne Convention Bureau (LCVB) helps regional, national and international event organisers looking to hold an event in the Lausanne region. To that end, LCVB provides a variety of services, some of which are free.

© SwissTech Convention Center

Free services provided by LCVB:

- Expert advisory, location scouting and feasibility analyses
- Support for the organisation of meetings and conventions
- Assistance regarding calls for tender and site visits
- Tourist information and promotional tools
- Contact information for key partners

If the project involves over 150 attendees, the organiser may choose to fully or partially delegate the organisation of the event to our team of professionals, which maintains regular contact with service providers in Lausanne.

In the next pages, you will find the essential paid services offered by LCVB. Quotes available on request.
