ICE PALACES

Whether it's a pirate ship, dragon's den, penguin hill, grotto or igloo: an enchanting, illuminated fairytale world awaits warmly dressed visitors two kilometres from Schwarzsee. The keen ice artist Karl Neuhaus created enchanting forms from bare ice for 30 years, while younger people have now taken over. The winter night and place are still magical. www.eispalaeste.ch

SCHWARZSEE ON ICE

Frozen, checked and approved as a stomping ground at last! The 0.5 km² natural ice rink in the middle of spectacular mountain scenery is very romantic and has enough space for walkers, cross-country skiers, ice skaters, ice princesses, ice hockey players, children and adults, as well as fans of the traditional curling to pass freely. www.schwarzsee.ch

FULL MOON TOUR

FABULOUS SNOWSHOE TOURS

This is exactly what Cyrille Cantin likes: a small group follows him on snowshoes from Moléson-sur-Gruyères on an easy circular tour through the glistening winter night. It is quiet, participants can hear the crunch of the snow and their own heartbeat. Dark fir trees are majestically silhouetted against the snow-covered slopes. It is enchanting to move forward in a steady rhythm. When were you actually last out and about in the snow at night? Thoughts wander and childhood memories come flooding back. Afterwards, participants sit down to a delicious Fribourg fondue in a warm chalet and listen to tales from the region. While the wind whistles around the wooden shingles, goblins, fairies and witches wake up and the black and white chamois in the old legends come to life again. What are the odds that this night will be memorable? Cyrille and his team from Attitude Oxygen have more active adventures in store. www.aoxy.ch

LIGHT FESTIVAL

Murten always appears particularly enchanting in January. The shoreline and the romantic mediaeval town glitter like a kaleidoscope. Around 30 Arteplages, a light-and-music spectacle in the German Church, unbelievable displays by the light magician “Spectaculaires” on the school façade and thousands of lanterns on the lake transform Murten into an all-encompassing work of art.

AUTHENTIC FRIBOURG SPECIALITIES

It is widely known that many Alpine chalets run a restaurant in the Fribourg Pre-Alps. Many of them are only accessible on foot or in the summer...but there are, of course, places where the typical specialities are always available. The Buvette au Creux du Feu is a 40-minute walk from the village of Broc and is also accessible by car. For once, the double enjoyment of a gourmet meal in an authentic, cosy Alpine restaurant is available to everyone. The family of Isabelle and René Julmy-Brodard cooks on an open wood fire and serves the traditional dishes of La Gruyère. Visitors are spoilt for choice with fondue “moitié-moitié”, Vacherin fribourgeois AOP and other cheese specialities. And then there is the Soupe de Chalet, ham and much more besides. But be careful: don't forget to leave room for a dessert, for example the legendary meringues with Gruyère double cream. A reservation is essential: Tel. +41 (0)79 755 88 07.

DOG SLEDGING

Starting in Les Paccots with dogs that are raring to go, mostly huskies, the ride goes through the winter landscapes. The encounter with these animals and the ride on the dog sledge will warm the hearts of animal lovers of all ages – even those with limited mobility. After a short introduction, anyone can have a go at steering the sledge.

CROSS-COUNTRY SKI

Skis are ideal for exploring and enjoying La Gruyère. Snow is virtually guaranteed on the Jaun-Charmey 2 x 10 kilometre ski run, which is also suitable for beginners. Experienced cross-country skiers can head for the more demanding high run on the Jaun Pass. Various circular runs, a fun park and magnificent views attract skiers to the Gibloux. La Cueva near Les Paccots is the newest cross-country ski area.

SLEDGING

Participants can take the cableway from Jaun at 1,580 m above sea level, soak up the panorama and then enjoy a magnificent six-kilometre sledge run down to the valley.

UPGRADE YOUR SKI DAY!

It is now possible to buy a day pass or a multi-day pass for even more fun. The cableways can be used free of charge on the day before, from 3.00 pm onwards. In Fribourg region, this is valid in Schwarzsee, Charmey, Jaun and La Berra. Whether it's for a first few ski runs, an evening sledge run (in Jaun or Schwarzsee) or an enjoyable terrace stop... the next day will get off to a good start.

EVENTS IN THE SNOW

Cross-country skiers, skaters, ski tourers, snowshoe and winter hikers will find wonderful opportunities in the Fribourg Pre-Alps to practise their sport at leisure.
