New winter entertainment

Nendaz Tourisme is proposing some brand new winter activities: fireworks display on New Year's Eve, snow sculpting competition, guided visit to a cow shed, workshop dedicated to teaching you how to do raclette like a local Nendard without forgetting the fun family après-skis evenings.

New Year's Eve fireworks display

On New Year's Eve, Nendaz will be ablaze ! The troupe SuperCho is giving an incredible, and free, fireworks display at 17:45 on the plaine des Ecluses in Haute-Nendaz. Accompanied with music and choreographies inspired by the electro and hip-hop scenes, the members of this troupe perform spectacular firework effects concluding their show with a firework grand finale. SuperCho owes its notoriety to reaching the semi-finals of the French TV talent show "La France à un incroyable talent" in 2019. This professional company's motto is: originality, rhythm, musicality, poetry and humour. Info

To complete this festive and family moment, there will also be a mini disco on the ice rink from 16:30 to 17:30.

Life and raclette at the cow shed

Two new activities are being organized in a cowshed in Basse-Nendaz (on registration with Nendaz Tourisme). The first, "Life in the cowshed", invites participants to discover the famous Hérens cows in their winter quarters and the work done by the herdsmen who feed them, milk them twice a day, look after them and groom them. The second offers visitors the opportunity to learn how to do raclette like a local Nendard. Of course, it is not only a question of preparing this traditional dish but also of tasting it. This activity also takes place in a cowshed, which allows participants to meet the cows that gave the milk from which the raclette cheese is produced. Info
