

☀ Summer in Nendaz

🌊 In the land of the bisses

The area's historic mountain water irrigation channels, called «bisses», form a striking network of waterside walks that at times thread through delightful villages, and at other times are perched high up. Children and adults just love these easy-level walks, all through spring and autumn.

Bisse du Milieu

This short water channel is easily accessible by everyone

Bisse Vieux

A pleasant walk along the water's edge through the heart of the forest

Bisse de Chervé

The highest bisse in Nendaz to explore in an incredible alpine setting

Bisse de Baar

A beautiful bisse passing through dry prairies and apricot orchards

Bisse d'en Bas

A cool and shady walk in a wild natural setting

Bisse de Salins

An impressive bisse dating back to the Middle Ages

Bisse de Saxon

The longest bisse in the Valais with its 32 kilometers long footpath

Bisse de Vex

The gem of the region's bisses
