

GUIDED WALKS IN THE VAL D'ANNIVIERS

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THE GLACIERS

UNDERSTANDING THE MOUNTAIN CLIMATE

A unique experience to explore Alpine landscapes and observe in the field, the impacts of climate change as they happen.

3-HOUR
GUIDED WALK

GLACIAL LANDFORMS & LANDSCAPES

Discover the traces left behind by ancient glaciers and learn how to read the landscape.

MOUNTAIN FLORA

Explore the adaptations of alpine plants and ecosystems to mountain environments and climate.

GLACIOLOGY

Observe rocks, glaciers, and the geological history of the Alps.

CLIMATE

Understand climate change and its impacts on mountain environments.

*Observe,
read,
understand*

Knowledge experienced in the field

Understanding the past to better understand the present and take action

WHO IS IT FOR?

Open to everyone aged 8 and above. Suitable for anyone in reasonably good physical condition.

WHEN?

July 27 & 28
August 9, 10 and 11
August 20
9:45 am – 12:45 pm
or 1:45 pm – 4:45 pm

MEETING POINT:

Zinal Centre bus stop

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Duration: approximately 3 hours

Elevation gain: 150–300 m

Group size: 4–12 participants

Please bring: sturdy hiking shoes, appropriate clothing, and water.

PRICES

CHF 45 per person
Families (2 adults + 2 children): CHF 110
Private groups: CHF 300
Schools: CHF 250

INFORMATION & BOOKINGS

TOURIST OFFICE

Contact:

✉ martin.crotone@hevs.ch

☎ +41 79 541 80 61

🌐 <https://www.valdanniviers.ch/fr/>

P215982/balade-guidee-sur-les-traces-des-glaciers

Science, Nature and Curiosity

Experienced climatologist and geographer with extensive alpine fieldwork experience.